No Sir. There is no proposal under consideration to open additional Regional Passport Offices in Kerala. At present there are Regional Passport Offices in Kozhikode and Cochin and a Passport Liaison Office in Trivandrum.

(b) In view of the on going computerisation of the passport Offices and establishment of national data bank, the Government has been following the priniciple of having one Passport Office in each State unless the number of passport applications from that State is too small to justify expenditure on opening a Passport Office in that State.
